JOB VACANCY

Senior Data Cabling Engineer

TALKWIRE
Communication by Design

Overview

Talkwire are looking to recruit an experienced Senior Data Cabling Engineer. Working independently and as part of a team, you will be required to manage and carry out complete installations in confidence and be able to check, test, and resolve Data Cabling issues on site.

Kell Skills Required

- Excellent customer handling skills.
- Exceptional communication skills.
- Reliable and approachable work ethic.
- Good written and spoken communications.
- Able to self motivate, be proactive and flexible.
- Competent under pressure and to strict deadlines.
- Able to work independently and as part of a team
- Sound technical knowledge.
- Comfortable with attending customer site locations across the UK.
- Be prepared to travel and work away in the UK where needed.
- CSCS or ECS is preferred.
- A Full UK Driving License is essential.
- Previous experience in Data Cabling is essential.

Key Responsibilities

- Install copper, fibre and multi-core cables.
- Equipment patching and patching panels.
- Install all types of containment such as conduit, trunking, tray and basket.
- Terminate and test cables using specialised equipment.
- Site surveys.
- Finding errors, solving issues related to cables and networks.
- Customer and office liaison where necessary.

Benefits

22K—34K depending on experience

26 days holiday plus bank holidays

Company sick pay

Company pension scheme

Business mobile phone

Use of company vehicle

PPE Clothing will be provided

To view the full job spec or to apply, please email your CV to careers@talkwire.co.uk or call 01225 899 861.